I. POLICY

The St. Louis County Department of Justice Services shall issue uniforms, linen and other jail items for the inmates' use and allow inmates to retain a reasonable amount of personal property and jail issued items in their cells consistent with the institutional safety and security requirements. Inmates will be accountable for the upkeep of all jail issued items.

II. RESPONSIBILITIES

All St. Louis County Department of Justice Services' Corrections and Property Room staff are responsible for the following procedures.

III. DEFINITIONS

Contraband: Any authorized item(s) found in an inmate's cell which is altered, in excess of the authorized amount or items not authorized.

IV. PROCEDURES

A. General Information

1. Each inmate will be given a standard issue of uniforms, linens and personal hygiene supplies, by the Property Room staff, before moving to the inmate's housing assignment.

2. Inmates will receive an Inmate Handbook that contains information on what inmates may keep in their cells.
3. Inmates are responsible for keeping their jail issued items in good condition. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action.
4. Items placed in the housing unit for general use (i.e., games, cleaning supplies, condiments, etc.) will be kept in the Dayroom area. These items shall not be stored in an inmate's cell.
5. Inmates will be held accountable for all items in their cell. Any contraband found in an inmate's cell will be confiscated and may result in disciplinary action. (See Policy #841 Contraband Control for Inmates)
6. All items not in use will be kept in the inmate's box, with the following exceptions:
 - a. One (1) uniform, one (1) towel and face cloth, which may be placed on the hooks provided.
 - b. Books/magazines may be stored on the shelf.
 - c. Shoes may be stored neatly under the inmate's bed.

NOTE: Any item(s) not kept in the inmate's property box will be considered contraband and will be confiscated.
7. Personal property transactions between inmates are prohibited. This includes selling, loaning, trading, or giving property as a gift to another inmate.
